

Bay St. Louis Police
Department monthly report
1 May-31 May 2013

LADY BEWARE PROGRAM: The department hosted our 10th LADY BEWARE COURSE, there were 25 women present. Next class is scheduled for June 18-19-and 20th. To reserve a spot call Officer Duane Caughlin at 228-466-5486. We highly recommend this course for mothers and daughters to attend, also with a new college semester starting it is recommended for those leaving for school.

HARBOR FEST: May 24th, 25th, and 26 Harbor Fest took place in Bay St. Louis. There were a lot of patrons that came thru, no incidents to report that required law enforcement action.

New Officers: We like to welcome Brad Epperson as our newest full time officer. He will be assigned to the Criminal Patrol Division. He is a long time resident of Bay St. Louis, and is currently serving with the U.S. Marine Corps in a reserve status, along with Nathaniel Duhe, a resident of Bay St. Louis. We have also added additional part time/reserve officers to our force, James Arnold, of Bay St. Louis, Paul Taylor of Bay St. Louis, Nathan Corr of Bay St. Louis, Gordon Gros of Bay St. Louis, and Joshua Mossey of Long Beach. Our part time/ reserve officers are an important asset to our city, these officers are fully trained and certified by the Mississippi Law Enforcement Standards and Training Division. They carry out the same duties as a full time certified officer. These officers volunteer their time to serve the citizens of Bay St. Louis.
